ADVENTURE ALBANY

THULE Albany Urban Downhill

$150 per person

Activity 2 nights 3 days in Albany to watch the Albany Urban Downhill Mountain Bike Challenge

Description The THULE Albany Urban Downhill is a mountain bike race, through the streets of Albany. Be a spectator at one of the coolest events of the year. This is a top class sporting event with Australian riders and International riders heading to Albany to be awarded the top prize. We will enjoy the pre-race event, ‘Whip’ Competition on Saturday night then witness some of the craziest mountain bikers during the race on Sunday.

What is included?

- Chartered bus from Curtin Stadium
- 2 nights’ accommodation
- Breakfast every morning
- A great view of the race!

Time 8:30am departure

Where to meet & how do we get there?

Meet at Building 111 Curtin Stadium at 8:30am, entry via Kent Street Northern Entrance. There is all day paid parking available at the stadium (A3) – you will need to activate this each day you are away.

Curtin Stadium staff will charter a bus to take all students from the Curtin University Campus to Albany.

 The bus will depart at 8:30am sharp **

Activity Level There will be a small amount of walking between events and sightseeing.

What to bring Clothes for 3 days. Albany can get very cold and wet so ensure you bring some warm clothes and rain jacket. Please also bring a water bottle, sunscreen, hat and comfortable shoes. A small backpack is good to use during the day to carry your personal items. You will need to bring some money for dinner each night (approx. $30 each night).
