Module: Introduction to leadership

Stream: SELF LEADERSHIP & TEAM LEADERSHIP

Module overview:
Explore what leadership means to you and to others. Identify the skills you already have and those you want to develop so you can have a positive impact. Understand how you can become involved and contribute to making the world a better place.

These modules will help you:
- Explore what leadership means for you
- Understand social change leadership
- Build your own and others capabilities so you can make a difference.

A little about the content:
Leadership isn’t necessarily about titles and jobs, nor is it limited to people with natural charisma. It can be expressed through our everyday actions and the way we influence the lives of those around us. It gives us an opportunity to make an impact and contribute to making the world a better place or in the words of our university we can ‘Make tomorrow better’.

We explore what social change leadership means and why social change is important. We look at how you can develop capabilities to help make you more effective on both an individual and team level.

Study mode options:
We know that you are busy, so we have a number of options for you to choose from:
- You can attend the two hour face to face workshop on campus
- You can participate in the streamed workshop online in real time
- You can complete the online module which includes opportunities for you to discuss your ideas with other online participants.

Curtin Extra:
The Curtin Extra Certificate provides you with official recognition and evidence of significant involvement in co-curricular programs that contribute to university life and to your personal and professional development. You can gain recognition of your involvement in the Curtin Leadership Centre programs by registering and completing the Self Leadership stream or Team Leadership stream modules as well as participating in an approved practical leadership opportunity (minimum 10 hours of volunteering).
