Stream: TEAM LEADERSHIP

Module overview:
Knowing how to communicate clearly to another person is an essential skill if you want to make a difference and want others to engage with your ideas. We need others to listen and remember what we say if we want to influence, build rapport and inspire people to take action.

This module will help you:
• Explore key elements of successful story telling
• Give more effective presentations
• Identify strategies to overcome nervousness and to become a confident speaker.

A little about the content:
Many people feel nervous when they have to speak in front of a group – in fact surveys show that for many it is their number one fear! This module will help you address that fear.

We identify strategies that will enable you to speak more confidently and persuasively. We help you to understand why story telling is such an important skill and how to construct more effective and meaningful stories. A range of frameworks are explored that will help you develop and deliver effective, engaging presentations to influence and inspire others to take action.

Study mode options:
We know that you are busy, so we have a number of options for you to choose from:
• You can attend the two hour face to face workshop on campus
• You can participate in the streamed workshop online in real time
• You can complete the online module which includes opportunities for you to discuss your ideas with other online participants.

Curtin Extra:
The Curtin Extra Certificate provides you with official recognition and evidence of significant involvement in co-curricular programs that contribute to university life and to your personal and professional development. You can gain recognition of your involvement in the Curtin Leadership Centre programs by registering and completing the Self Leadership stream or Team Leadership stream modules as well as participating in an approved practical leadership opportunity (minimum 10 hours of volunteering).
