Module: Social responsibility

Stream: SELF LEADERSHIP

Module overview:
Sometimes, life presents us with tough situations where there are no ‘right’ answers. Determining what to do in these situations so that you can reach the ‘best’ solution available can present challenges. We explore different ethical frameworks and how these can help us to address ethical issues and to act in line with our values.

This module will help you:
- Explore different ethical frameworks
- Understand how your values impact the way you apply ethical frameworks
- Appreciate the values and ethical frameworks of others.

A little about the content:
Facing ethical dilemmas can cause us stress. Developing a deeper understanding of our values and our own ethical standards can help us address ethical dilemmas and lessen some of the stress associated with them. We explore the basis of our ethical standards and how these are applied to different situations we might face. Ethical decision making frameworks and voicing concerns regarding what we might see as unethical practices are examined.

Study mode options:
We know that you are busy, so we have a number of options for you to choose from:
- You can attend the two hour face to face workshop on campus
- You can participate in the streamed workshop online in real time
- You can complete the online module which includes opportunities for you to discuss your ideas with other online participants.

Curtin Extra:
The Curtin Extra Certificate provides you with official recognition and evidence of significant involvement in co-curricular programs that contribute to university life and to your personal and professional development. You can gain recognition of your involvement in the Curtin Leadership Centre programs by registering and completing the Self Leadership stream or Team Leadership stream modules as well as participating in an approved practical leadership opportunity (minimum 10 hours of volunteering).
